House of Representatives! have made a report in relation to the public debt of the State, and proposing a levy of such taxes as will preserve the credit of the State. From this report, it appears that the debt of Alabama is $14,109,000. Of this sum, $9.215,000 are in bonds issued in favor of banking institutions; the remainder is in bank circulation, for which the State is responsible, and a sebt due the university and common school funds of over one million. The interest upon the whole debt amounts to nearly $508,000 per annum. This, together with the amount necessary to defray the expenses of government, imposss the obligation of raising annually $700,000. The committee think that upon the winding up of the banks there will be a deficit in their assets, which, taken in connection with the circulation and school debt, will leave the State a sum of $7,000,000 to make good. Wp to this period, we are told that the State has maintained her faith unternished, and that at some sacrifice she is already prepared ouse of Representatives! have made a report in relation

LITERATURE AND ART,

FOR FEBRUARY, 1845

Splendul Original National Pictures.

OURINDIAN ILLUSTRATIONS, Nos. V. VI.

THE CHIEF'S DAUGHTER, from an exquisite Painting
by G. G. Dunan.

THE INDIAN CHIEF—in Costume, one of the best Engravings of Rawdon, Wright & Hatch.

An Elegant Fennsylvania Scene—DR. ROSE'S VILLA, from a superb drawing by Smillie.

Our Portrait Gallery, No XVII.

The engravings of this number are all from pictures owned by the publisher of this magazine, and their highly American churacter gives them an especial value as works of art. We ive adopted a plan for the year 1845 for the management of "Graham," that must settle all half-heavied competition. The American press, from one end of the country to the other, has spoken in the most cheering manner of the enterprise of giving American works of art, and the people have as warmly responded.

Is addition to the above superior engravings, the February continuence of art, and the people have as warmly reponded.

Is addition to the above superior engravings, the February umber contains Three Engravings on Wood executed in the est manner, representing the "Battle of Etcheee," "Battle of Fort Moultre," and the Battle of Farker's Ferry," some of the reat battles fought in the days of "Marion." some of the reat battles fought in the days of "Marion." The Defalcation in the House - Col. McNulty under Arrest - Charges and Explanations - Sus; enson - The nomination of Col. Polk as Charge to Naples. JAMES G. BENNETT, ESQ.

A scene of great excitement existed in the House this morning, on the presentation of the following report, relative to the alleged defalcation of Col. C. J. McNulty, the Clerk of the House of Representatives. I forwarded you yesterday a statement, presenting the particulars of this matter as given to me by the party accused, and on which I had reason to rely as correct. The same position was seme by the party accuse J, and on which I had reason to rely as correct. The same position was assumed and asserted by Col. McNulty to day, before the House of Representatives, and to-morrow will develope the truth or falsity of his statement, as the proceedings were postponed until that time, in order to allow him to make his account good and present his youghers. To give your readers a correct view. his vouchers. To give your readers a correct view of the opinion of the committee of accounts, as presented in their report, I herewith send you a administration, and would command a return of favors from the latter.

The candidates for Congress, in Virginia, are required to answer their constituents, whether they will support the editors of the Globe for Printers of Congress, if elected. This is only the commencement of a contemplated party attack upon the Globe, that must compel its present editors to retire from their position.

The Conclusion of the Rumored Defulcation-Mr. Kershow the Accounting Clerk returned-Col. Mc Nulty fully exoncrated - Levi D. Slamm's Card. AMES G. BENNETT, ESQ.-Mr. Kershaw, the Accounting Clerk of the House of Representatives, has arrived this evening from Ohio, by the way of New York, and has informed me that the vouchers in his possession will fully sustain the position assumed in my letter of yesterday, relative to the rumored detaleation of Col. McNulty the Clerk of the House. This will be made manifest to the committee of accounts, tomorrow morning, and their report will be submitted to the House at two o'clock. The report of the committee as forwarded to you to-day, charges Levi D. Slamm, of the Plebeian, with receiving $2,000 as a loan from Col. McNulty. He has denied this statement in a card published in "The Madisonian" this afternoon, in which he alleges that he drew $2,000 on a check from the Bank of America in July last; but that the sum was not for his own use, but was immediately paid over to Col. McNulty, who gave him the check.

The whole question will be disposed of to-morrow at 2 o'clock, and there is every reason to believe that the result will fully exonerate Col. McNulty from all suspicion of appropriating a dollar of the public money to his own use or benefit. committee as forwarded to you to-day, charges

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 17, 1845 In the Herald of the 15th inst., I notice an article in which I think injustice has been done to Sena-tor Walker, of Mississippi. Reference is made to his connection by marriage to the Vice President elect and Secretary Wilkins, and that he and his family connections are monopolizing the Government patronage. Senator Walker's family is a numerous one. His father fought bravely in the revolutionary war, and many of the family have been distinguished for literary and legal attainments, yet not one of blood relation holds office under the Government. His connection by marriage to distinguished gentlemen in Pennsylvania should not operate as a bar to his holding a high s ation under the Government, if his talents and public services entitle him to it. Although a native of Pennsylyania, he is a Southern Statesman, has become distinguished as such, and, if selected as a member of Governor Polk's Cabinet, it will be on these grounds alone, without the slightest retrence to his connection with distinguished mentiewhere. He will belong to no clique—dispense the patronage of the Government, that may be incerd at his dignosal, for the advancement of no stricular aspirant for the Presidency; but will expessly refuse to be the partisan of any, at least so say his friends or those who are supposed to enjoy his confidence. His abilities are acknowledged by all, his services in the late political cambination of the party; he is located in the section of the Union entitled to representation in the Cabinet, and his appointment would, as I believe, give as general satisfaction as that of any person, whether located north or south of Mason & Dixon's line. s ation under the Government, if his talents and
